HOW TO MAKE A WARRANTY CLAIM

For the purpose of making a claim the customer must:

1. Contact the “point of contact” above and upon provision of proof of purchase the customer will receive a Goods Return Advice (GRA) number.
2. At the customer’s expense, collect and return the goods to the “point of contact” with the issued GRA number.
3. Upon receipt of the goods, GLG will review the claim and if found to be accepted, GLG will return a replacement product to the customer to install at the customer’s expense. Alternatively, if the claim is rejected, the customer may request the return of the goods at their expense.
4. Consumer Contracts - The benefits to the customer given by the GLG warranty are in addition to other rights and remedies of the customer if the goods are the subject of a Consumer Contract under the Australian Consumer Law. In that event the following statement is required to be brought to the Consumer’s attention: Our goods come with guarantees that cannot be excluded under the Australian Consumer Law.
5. You are entitled to a replacement or refund for a major failure and compensation for any other reasonably foreseeable loss or damage. You are also entitled to have the goods repaired or replaced if the goods fail to be of acceptable quality and the failure does not amount to a major failure. Limitation of Liability - if the customer does not purchase the goods under a Consumer Contract within the Australian Consumer Law then but not otherwise; -
  - A. The Company is not liable in tort for any loss or damage suffered by the customer or by any third party; and
  - B. In no circumstances is GLG liable to the customer or any third party for any loss of profits, loss of anticipated savings, economic loss or interruption of business or for any indirect or consequential loss (Consequential Loss).
6. Terms of Sale - these Warranty provisions are in substitution for any inconsistent provisions in the GLG Terms and Conditions of Sale in so far as they apply to the Warranty components.
7. The Australian Consumer Law requires the inclusion of the following statement with the GLG Warranty in any Consumer Contract:

Our goods come with guarantees that cannot be excluded under the Australian Consumer Law. You are entitled to a replacement or refund for a major failure and for compensation for any other reasonably foreseeable loss or damage. You are also entitled to have the goods repaired or replaced if the goods fail to be of acceptable quality and the failure does not amount to a major failure.
